

SESSION 10A

RESIDENTIAL NEW CONSTRUCTION EVALUATION METHODS AND ISSUES

Moderator: Carol Mulholland, Academy for Educational Development

PAPERS:

Dressing the Priestess: Preparation for and Results of a Delphi Study for a Residential New Construction Program

William Blake, National Grid
Shel Feldman, Shel Feldman Management Consulting
Dorothy Conant

When a HERO Comes Along: Expanding the Market Share of ENERGY STAR® Homes

Jill Luedtke, Quantec, LLC
Terry Smith, Ohio Office of Energy Efficiency
M. Sami Khawaja, Quantec, LLC

A Case Study in Triangulation: Assessing the Residential New Construction Market from Multiple Perspectives

Kathryn Parlin, West Hill Energy and Computing
Al Bartsch, West Hill Energy and Computing
Mitchell Rosenberg, KEMA-XENERGY
Tom Franks, Vermont Department of Public Service

SESSION SUMMARY:

This session offers valuable insights on developing evaluation practices for residential new construction ranging from sampling protocols, triangulation methods, and the use of Delphi Studies.

